

PURPOSE: To clarify sign-outs for religious services.

INTRODUCED BY: Ava Grace Noe

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MISSISSIPPI SCHOOL FOR MATHEMATICS AND SCIENCE SENATE:

SECTION ONE (REASONING):

MSMS values student diversity and wants to support each student individually to the best of the institution's ability. To do this the handbook needs to be clear about changes made throughout the year that help the institution support its students. The best way to support students is to keep them safe. Last year the honorable Ms. Latoya sent out an email clarifying religious activity sign-outs and this change is not reflected in the handbook. This clarifies the rules not only for the student but also for residential life staff to refer to.

SECTION TWO (SPECIFIC CHANGE):

On page 104 of the Student Handbook (PDF page 109) under the section "Religious Activities", the following will be changed,

The school recognizes the desire of parents to have their children attend religious services. Students may make arrangements to participate in religious ~~activities~~ activities of their choice. Many religious organizations are within walking distance of the school. The school does not provide transportation but will assist students in making those arrangements. Students are allowed, with parental permission, to attend daytime Saturday and Sunday religious activities. To attend Sunday religious services the students must sign out and notify residence life staff the night prior if leaving before 8:30 am. Sunday night and mid-week services that do not conflict with required study hours are permitted with parent permission. Students whose privilege plans allow them to opt out of study hours one or more nights per week may use that option to attend evening services that conflict with required study hours. All others require prior approval from the Director for Academic Affairs.
